- Reviewing financial and market conduct company records.
- Reviewing life, health, property or casualty policy forms for approval or disapproval.
- Reviewing and approving/disapproving rates for many lines of insurance.
- Ensuring compliance with the Nebraska Insurance Code through administrative actions.
- Drafting legislation and regulations.
- Investigating insurance fraud.
- Investigating consumer complaints.
- Educating and informing consumers about insurance issues.
- Coordinating and maintaining a senior counseling program.

CONSUMER INFORMATION

If you have questions or concerns about an insurance matter, you may contact the Nebraska Department of Insurance for assistance.

DEPARTMENT ORGANIZATION

In addition to the Department's commitment to protecting the public interest, it also has an obligation to assist the insurance industry by providing consistent, unbiased, and equitable regulation.

What follows is an overview of how the Department is organized to serve the needs of the insurance-buying public, as well as the entities which choose to do business in our state.

ADMINISTRATION

Responsible for enforcing the laws and regulations of the state regarding insurance, setting policy, managing the staff of employees, and overseeing the Department's budget. The Director of Insurance is appointed by the Governor.

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES

BUDGET SECTION: Responsible for the Department's finances.

INFORMATION SYSTEMS SECTION: Responsible for providing support for all information systems and computer hardware throughout the Department.

OFFICE SERVICES SECTION: Responsible for providing support functions for all divisions within the Department of Insurance.

CONSUMER AFFAIRS

Responsible for providing the public with insurance information and assistance, and for investigating consumer complaints to ensure the proper handling of insurance transactions.

FINANCIAL REGULATION

Responsible for determining and monitoring the financial solvency of insurance companies licensed in Nebraska.

FINANCIAL EXAMINATION SECTION: Responsible for conducting on-site financial examinations of all Nebraska domestic insurance companies in accordance with Nebraska statutes and regulations, and the NAIC Financial Condition Examiners Handbook; responsible for conducting qualifying examinations of companies organizing in Nebraska.

FINANCIAL ANALYSIS SECTION: Responsible for conducting in-house audits of financial statements and all other supplemental filings made by all Nebraska domestic insurance companies; responsible for analyzing other information to monitor the insurer's statutory compliance and solvency on an ongoing basis; responsible for oversight of pre-need sales.

COMPANY ADMINISTRATION SECTION: Responsible for reviewing, evaluating and processing company licensing applications, changes, and certificates of authority; responsible for administration of statutory deposits; auditing and collecting premium tax, retaliatory tax, fire marshal tax, and renewal fees; responsible for audit and collection of premium and fire marshal tax for surplus and excess lines.

FRAUD PREVENTION

Responsible for confronting the problem of insurance fraud by prevention, investigation, and prosecution of fraudulent insurance acts in an effort to reduce the amount of premium dollars used to pay fraudulent claims.
