(Not all activity exempt, see General Information section of this notice);

11) A person acting solely as a TPA of one or more bona fide employee benefit plans established by an employer or employer's organization, or both, for which the insurance laws of Nebraska are preempted pursuant to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA). However, such person has to register with the Director annually. (Not all activity exempt, see General Information section of this notice); or

12) A person licensed as a managing general agent whose activities are limited exclusively to activities allowed under such license (see General Information section of this notice).

GENERAL INFORMATION

If an insurance agent, broker, or managing general agent engages in any of the activities of a TPA (such as adjusting or paying claims for the deductible portion of a partially self-insured plan for an employer) the agent or broker must obtain a certificate of authority from the Department.

If an employer or union exempt from the Act adjusts or settles claims for another employer or union, the employer or union will be considered a TPA.

Persons that engage in any of the following for a fee, must be licensed by the Department under the Insurance Consultant's Act Neb.Rev.Stat. §44-2606 et seq.; offering advice, counsel, opinion or service for insurable risks, or concerning the benefits, coverages, or provisions under any policy of insurance that could be issued on this state.

If a person acting as a TPA for one or more ERISA plans acts as a TPA for a non-ERISA qualified plan, not subject to another exemption, the person must obtain a certificate of authority.

REGISTRATION OF ERISA PLANS

See below Neb.Rev.Stat. §44-5812(7)

“(7) A person shall not be required to hold a certificate of authority as a third-party administrator in this state if the person exclusively provides services to one or more bona fide employee benefit plans each of which is established by an employer or an employee organization, or both, and for which the insurance laws of this state are preempted pursuant to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974. Such person shall register with the director annually and verify his or her status as described in this section.”
