RESPONDENT.)

In order to resolve this matter, the Nebraska Department of Insurance (“Department”), by and through its attorney, Robert M. Bell, and Scott Robert Prill (“Respondent”) mutually stipulate and agree as follows:

JURISDICTION

1. The Department has jurisdiction over the subject matter and Respondent pursuant to Neb. Rev. Stat. § 44-101.01 and the Insurance Producers Licensing Act, Neb. Rev. Stat. §§ 44-4047 to 4067.

2. Respondent was a licensed insurance producer under the laws of Nebraska at all times material hereto. Respondent’s insurance producer license expired on May 31, 2014.

STIPULATIONS OF FACT

1. The Department initiated this administrative proceeding by filing a Petition and Notice of Hearing captioned State of Nebraska Department of Insurance vs. Scott Robert Prill, Cause No. A-2006, on October 1, 2014.

2. The Department mailed a copy of the Petition and Notice of Hearing to the business and home address Respondent registered with the Department, 620 Arthur St., Holdrege, NE 68949, however both mailings were returned forward time expired return to sender. A Petition and Amended Notice of Hearing was then filed on October 7, 2014, and was served upon the Respondent at the Respondent's new address, 2812 W. 37th Street, Kearney NE 68845-0420. Respondent received a copy of the Petition and Amended Notice of Hearing.

3. The Petition alleges that Respondent violated Neb. Rev. Stat. §§ 44-317, 44-4059(1)(b), and 44-4059(1)(h) as follows:

On or about September 22, 2011, Respondent knowingly obtained a loan from insurance clients William R. Reasor and Jane E. Reasor (Reasors) in the amount of $30,000, which was withdrawn by the Reasors from a Transamerica Life Insurance Company annuity product which listed Respondent as the agent. Under the terms of the promissory note signed by the Respondent and the Reasors, the principal and 8 % interest was due and payable to the Reasors on or before September 22, 2012. The Respondent was not related to the Reasors by birth, marriage, or adoption.

4. Respondent was informed of his right to a public hearing. Respondent waives that right and enters into this Consent Order freely and voluntarily. Respondent understands and acknowledges that by waiving his right to a public hearing, Respondent also waives his right to confrontation of witnesses, production of evidence, and judicial review.

5. This Consent Order is not an admission of liability by Respondent. By agreeing to this Consent Order, Respondent does not admit the allegations in paragraph 3, above, or to any violation of law, liability, fault, misconduct or wrongdoing in connection with those allegations. The Parties have determined that the Petition and Amended Notice of Hearing filed October 7, 2014, can be resolved without litigation. This Consent Order is executed to avoid further proceedings in this matter and does not constitute an admission for any other purposes. Based
